Black Men-Lou Payn, Lauterbach and Orsber-Strong, Cits and Rough Riders -Governor Black Sends Good Wishes, Col Boosevelt's day began quietly enough, but Hended with a rush and a roar last night at the reception given to the Republican andidates at the Republican Club. The hall and the big parlors were jammed so that it was hard work to move through the crowd. At twenty minutes of 9 order Col. Rooseveit's familiar white empaign hat was thrust out of the door of a esh at the curb, and the people on the side-walks and the steps let out a shout. Mr. William Leary piloted the candidate up through the crowd, and led him to the back parlor through a lane of enthusiastic Republicans. sho cheered and clapped their hands as he pushed his way through.

In the back room he found Dr. Chauncey M. pepew, the President of the club, and a numher of his fellow candidates. The Reception committee shook hands with the candidates and then they all formed in a line around two sides of the room. Dr. Depew, Col. Charles F. Homer, and Louis Stern took the head of the fimothy L. Woodruff, John T. McDonough, andidate for Secretary of State; John C. Daries, nominee for Attorney-General, and W. J. Morgan, the nominee for Comptroller.

Among the first of those in the line into which the struggling crowd in the parlors and halls resolved itself was Senator Hobart Krum. Close behind him was Judge W. M. K. Olcott. They were cheered as they shook hands with Mr. Roosevelt, and assured him that they would do all in their power to make his election sare. Then came Gen. C. H. T. Collis, Congressman J. Murray Mitchell and Frederick Sermour Gibbs. When William Brookfield, who voted for the renomination of Gov. Black, came along there was a smile on his face that widened into a hearty laugh as he caught the candidate's eye. The Colonel let out a shout that caused a group of rough riders in the doorway to start automatically. Then the two men pounded one another's shoulders and laughed and called one another opproblous names, such as "dear old rascal" and "howling cowboy" and "wicked politician." The mwd was moved to applause and cheers. A group of ten or more rough riders, led by Color Sergeant Wright and Sorgt. Buck Taylor fell into the congratulatory line. Col. Roosevelt held them for some little time talking to some of the men whom he had not seen since the muster out. The two parlors full of onlookers sheered and kept cheering until the volunteer avairymen had passed out into the ball. There Sergt. Wright found himself surrounded by a crowd of strangers.

It's a new uniform the Colonel has on tesight," said some one to him, referring to the olonel's evening dress. "I don't know." said the Sergeant slowly.

talking, but I can talk about him." He jerked his head toward the room where Col. Roosevelt was. "Eighty per cent. of our regiment were men who voted for Bryan and free silver in 1808. We voted that way and we were dead in earnest. There isn't a man in that whole regient to-day, gentlemen, who wouldn't vote for the Colonel against Bryan, free silver, Mark Hanna, anybody and any party to-day. And most of us had never seen his face six months

It was a queer coincidence but at that me ment Senator Hanna passed into and out of the little space around Bergt. Wright, and made his way toward the receiving line. If he had heard the Sergeant's devoted declaration he didn't show it. When the Senator reached Col. Roosevelt he reached for the candidate's

"I'm glad to see you. Teddy," he said. "I'm glad to see you back allve."

The Colonel laughed. "I am glad to be con-

There was quite a perceptible movement near the outgoing door, which was jammed in a moment. The Colonebeame half way out into the room. "Gentlemen," he cried, "will somebody take Edward Lauterbach advanced into the window where the Colonel was seeking fresh airsad they shook handswarmly. Glad to see you," said he.

Elly Leary said it meant "two of a kind."

There Republicans of every shade of opinion marched by and shook the candidates by the sand. There were some who were not Republicans. Major Avery D. Andrews, the former folice Commissioner, and a number of young sen who spent many interesting evenings last fall making Citizen's Union cart tail pseches. Former Fire Commissioner James & Sheffield Magairattes Wentworth, Denel, tammer and Olmsted, Benator Lexow. Gen. Asseland and John A. Bieloher were among hase who filed by. When former Chief of folice McCullagh reached him Col. Roosevelt said "Hello, Chief," and took him by both shoulders and shook him and then held im at one side chatting with him between landshakes. Ex. Mayor William L. Btrong was replendently beautiful in a speckled white waisteout that caused the Lieutenant-Governor's eye to follow him with a smile of appreciative admiration.

Abraliam Gruber had to go into the window recess to find Col. Roosevelt, who for the second or third time had retired there for a breath of tesh air.

The Colonel beckoned all present for their stention as he reached out and pulled the diministive west side statesman into the window. This is the only man, he announced, who were boomed my book on politics. My publishers any that they advise me to spare no effort or engage him as a permanent book agent."

Everybody laughed, and if Mr. Gruber made, a few to use of col. Love! H. Jerome, who wanders the west out of the room and up the stars chucking every step of the way.  Col. Rooseveit spent the day at his home at Oyster Bay working on his letter of acceptance, his speech to the notification committee and his correspondence. He took the noon train for this city. When he walked out of the Long Island City station he was carrying an assortment of packages, bags and paper rolls, that he said, made him feel like a comic-weekly picture of a commuter. RALLYING FOR ROOSEFELT.

Brooklyn Will Be Awakened from Red Hook to Newtown Creek.

The reception to Col. Theodore Roosevelt and Lieut.-Gov. Timothy L. Woodruff at he Union League Club in Brooklyn next Saturday night will be the occasion of one of the biggest Republican outpourings ever witnessed in that borough. Grant Square, in which the clubhouse is situated, covers a wide area, but it will probably not be large enough to accommodate the Republican hosts, who will come from all directions to cheer the gallant Colonel of the rough riders and his associate on the ticket. A dozen or more true-blue Re-publican organizations in Brooklyn are making arrangements to march in procession to the arrangements to march in procession to the square.

During this week all the nominations will have been completed and beginning next Monday the Republican campfires will be lighted all along the line from Red Hook Point to Newtown Creek and be kept blazing until election night. There will be four or five immense mass mestings at the Academy of Music, the Clermont Avenue Rink and in one of the big halls in the Eastern District, but the dates will not be positively fixed for a few days. The list of speakers will include Col. Roosevelt, Gen. Benjamin F. Traoy, President Seth Low of Columbia and Lieut.-Gov. Woodruff.

A NOVEL STUMPING PROJECT.

Bough Biders in a Mammoth Stage to Whoop for Bossevelt.

Henry Hamilton, the veteran liveryman Williamsburg, and Charles C. Overton of Coney Island have in contemplation a novel stumping project for the Republican candiiates which may be adopted by the State Executive Committee. They recently purchased ten of the best horses owned by the rough riders. The proposed plan is to have the horse ttached to the mammoth stage "Pride of the attached to the mammoth stage "Fride of the Nation," with three rough riders in uniform aboard, two more as outriders on the leading pair of horses, a brass band and half a dozen rattling campaign speakers. The stage is to start from the Battery and go over the old post road as far as Buffalo, stopping at all the principal intermediate towns. It is said that Col. Boosevalt has indersed the plan and promised to do all in his power to make it a success. Messra, Hamilton and Overton will see Chairman William Barnes of the State Executive Committee about the matter to-day.

STRAGOGUES CHEER ROOSEFELT.

Jowish Quarter Full of Patriotism Hatred of Spanish Cruelty.

The old-time persecution of the Jews in Spain was a common subject of the discourses in the orthodox synagogues in this city during the war with Spain. The cruelties of the Spaniards to the Cubans were another and cognate thems. Patriotism ran high in the Jewish quarter and it is running high yet. When the quarter and to consider the synagogues his name was cheered enthusiastically. A well-known east that layer lander and yesterday to a Sun reside labor leader said yesterday to a sun reporter:

"While I am a Democrat and will vote for Yan Wyek, I can assure you that if the election was to-morrow Boosevelt would surely receive a tremendous Hebrew vote. It is not that they like his action in enforcing the excise and Sunday laws, but hatred of Spanish cruelty and admiration for Booseveit's soldierly career will give him a vote on the east side that will astonish the professional politicians."

SHAFTER ON ROOSEVELT.

^{es} Grit and Courage and Enthusiasm Enough for a Dosen."

Gen. Shafter went over to Governors Island yesterday, but did not assume command of the epartment of the East. The formal order have not yet arrived. A salute of thirteen guns was fired in his bonor, and he stayed to innobeod. Afterward he visited the Army Building and drew his $025 pay for September. In conversation there he said of Col. Roosevelt. "Boosevelt is about the finest amateur sol-dier I ever saw. He's got arit and courage and enthusiasm enough for a dozen officers."

VENEZUELANS CRITICISED.

They Were Much Excited Over a Letter ributed to the British Minister.

Caracas, Venezuela, Sept. 24.—A sensation in diplomatic Government circles has been made during the past few days by the publication in the Port of Spain Gazetts, in Trinidad, of a let-ter addressed by William H. D. Haggard, British Minister to Venezuela, to Lord Salisbury It was referred by the Prime Minister to the Colonial Secretary, and in some manner its contents became known in Trinidad.

Minister Haggard took occasion to arraign the Government and people of Venezuela. Acin the many natural resources and colonization opportunities of Venesuela, but he condemns the general conduct of the Government and the apathy and laziness of her citizens.

The Government asked Minister Haggard for an explanation. He denied the authorship of the letter in its published form and charged that he had been misquoted by the Gazette. It is said that United States Minister Loomis, be that he had been misquoted by the Gasetts. It is said that United States Minister Loomis, before sailing for New York by the last steamer, exercised his good office with President Andrage and the matter has been dropped so far at his Government is concerned.

The arrival of the Italian warships at La Guayra, after their recent visit to Cartagena, Colombia, was made the occasion for a brilliant reception tendered to Admiral Candiani and his fleet. The Admiral and many of the officers and men of the squadron visited the capital and thoroughly enjoyed their brist sojourn ashore. President Andrade publicly received the Admiral and his staff at the Yellow House, and conferred upon Admiral Candiani the order of the Bast of the Libertador" in the second degree, and upon the Captaline the same order in the third degree. They received much attention and entertainment during their stay in Caracas. The fleet left yesterday for Bahia, Brazil, to await orders.

Many of the exhibitors in the Carscas sample warehouse of the American Manufacturers' Association are beginning to realize desirable results from this enterprise in the way of substantial orders that have recently been forwarded to the United States.

The energy of the warehouse director, Mr. Rudolph Bolge, and of the secretary, Señor Ibarra, are having the effect of bringing this institution prominently before the people of Venezuela and its success is no longers matter of conjecture.

These were among the letters and telegrams received by the club from those who had been invited and were not present:

"I had already completed my plans for a rest of a few days in the country and start this morning (Oct. 1). I should be glad to attend the reception, but in my absence I hope you will convey to your guests, the nominees my best wishes and my earnest desire for their success.

"I extend my warmest congratulations on the glorious prospects of the party.

THIS IS NOTIFICATION DAY.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE TO GO TO OFSTER BAY THIS MORNING.

Democratic Candidates to Meet at Van Wyck's House in the Eventing—Col. Roosevelt Has Opened Headquarters—Veit Has Opened Headquarters spot as much as possible during the campaign. It is to be one of the shortest campaigns on ecord, as election day is five weeks from this morning. Col. Roosevelt, Chairman Odell and President Quigg of the New York County Committee conferred most of yesterday afternoon in Col. Roosevelt's headquarters. The Notification committee appointed by the Republican State Convention at Saratoga will journey to Oyster Bay by special train from Long Island City at 11:30 this morning. Col. Roosevelt will formally accept the nomination for Governor in a ringing address to the committee and the outsiders present. The Notification Committee will return to New York in the evening.

It has not yet been definitely settled whether Col. Roosevelt is to make a tour of the State, Yesterday he received a very pleasant letter rom Gov. Black, saying that if Col. Roosevelt decided to visit Troy during the campaign Gov. Black would be very much pleased to in troduce him to the Republicans of Reusselser. The final arrangements for the great ratification meeting in Carnegie Hall on Wednesday evening were made yesterday. Gen. Stewar L. Woodford will preside, and the speeches will be by Col. Roosevelt, Lieut.-Gov. Woodruff Seth Low, Joseph H. Choate, and possibly Elihu Root. The demands for tickets to this meeting are prodigious. Ex-President Benjamin Harrison, Senator Hanna and Senator Foraker of Ohio and other prominent national Republican figures were in town yesterday, and every one of them predicted a brilliant campaign for Col. Roosevelt and a brilliant victory on Nov. 8.

Col. Roosevelt received at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday platoons of visitors, who shook hands and wished him the greatest good fortune. The presence of Col. Roosevelt in his headquarters on the Twenty-third street side of the hotel attracted a great crowd of men and women out on the street all the afternoon, Col. Roosevelt's mail is of the most catholic character. His correspondents are from every State in the Union, and the letters he has received from Republicans of all complexions in served from Republicans of all complexions in New York State, assuring him of a tremendous majority on election day, are by no means the least interesting feature of the campaign. Brig.-Gen. Chaffee, who was a gallant fighter in Ouba, was at the Fifth Avenue Hotel on Sun-day. He departed yesterday morning before Col. Boosevelt arrived from Oyster Bay. Gen. Chaffee sent Col. Roosevelt the following letter: "Oct. Theeders Reserveit.

"Oo! Theeders Reserveit.

"My Dean Colonel: My hearty congratulations to you—the next Governor of New York. It is my fond hope that your administration as Governor will be as satisfying to the pecule of the State as have been your services to the nation in war. Therefore, with the best of wishes, lead on bravely as at San Juan and victory shall be as complete, glorjous and satisfying to you personally next November. Sincerely yours.

ADNA R. CHAPPER." Yours. ADNA R. CHAPPEE." When Col. Roosevelt was at Santiago the Loyal Legion of the State sent an invitation to him for the annual dinner of the legion, which is to take place at Deimonico's Wednesday night. A committee called on Col. Roosevelt yesterday, fearing that the Carnegie Hail meeting on Wednesday might might prevent the Colonel from attending the dinner. Col. Roosevelt informed the committee that he would steal a few moments and be present at the dinner.

The Democratic campaigners at the Hoffman House, with Senator McCarren at the head, announced yesterday that the plans for notifying the Democratic State candidates of their nominations had been changed; that the notification ceremonies would take place to-night in Mr. Van Wyck's home in Brooklyn. Frederick C. Schraub, Chairman of the Democratic State Convention at Syracuse, together with Senator McCarren and all of the Democratic State candidates below Governor, will leave the Hoffman House to-night at about 8 o'clock for Justice Van Wyck's home. Senator McCarren dates below Governor, will leave the Hoffman House to-night at about 8 o'clock for Justice Van Wyck's home. Senator McCarren said that no plans had been made as yet for a speaking tour through the State for Mr. Van Wyck, but that arrangements were in progress to have him open the Democratic campaign in Brooklyn, either at the Academy of Music or the Rink in Clermont avenue. If these arrangements could be perfected, the Democratic campaign would be opened in Brooklyn some night later in the present week.

All of the Democratic campaigners at the Hoffman House were greatly pleased last night when they received a copy of a letter sent by Henry George, Jr., declining the nomination for Governor of the Chicago platform Democrats. Mr. George's letter says:

I am persuaded that by pursuing uninterruptedly the duty of writing my father's biography—a duty to my father's memory and be the cause to which he gave his life—I can do more for the principles of freedom than I cenid by engaging actively in politics. For at a time when the two great political machines mast excite public attention over the questions of the war and the criminal scandals growing out of it and over questions of official corruption and mismanagement in the State, the more remote, though far greater economic questions would be lost sight of, and thus an independent fight would not stand on the merit of its principles, but get only such scant attention in the public eye as might be diverted from the fight over political debauchery.

I should say, moreover, in justice to myself am no more than my father was an advocate of free coinage. He condemned its economic soundness, beling in fact a bellever neither in gold nor silver, but in credit or paper money. He supported the Chicago platform not on account of, but in spite of, its advocacy for free silver, because he believed that in other respects it stood for the principle of freedom ibecause it took the side of the weak as against that of the monopolists—because it sided with the House of Want against th

Where Price Regulates Quality

The quality of anything invariably regulater its price. It is a reasonable presumption that, all else being equal, the thing which costs the most is the best. This is particularly true of champagne, the wholesale prices of which are regulated for the entire world by the London market, in which the greatest connoisseurs and most discriminating judges are engaged. Here Pommery invariably sells at a higher price than other champagnes. This is proof positive that it is considered by the best judges to be superior. In America its rotall price is usually the same as other brands, but those familiar with the facts appreciate that they are getting better value for their money if they order Pemmery .- Adv.

MINNESOTA INDIAN TROUBLES.

The Chippeways Still Defiant-More Troops to Start for the Scene To-Day.

WALKER, Minn., Oct. 3 .- There has been no relaxation in the tension of the Indian situa tion to-day, and everything indicates tha the recreant Chippeway Indians are as determined as ever. The news from Bear Island to-night only confirms the information contained in previous dispatches The pillagers are resting after their big dance of Sunday, but are fully prepared for whatever may occur and assert that their men will not be taken. The council called at the agency for to-day amounted to little. Only the agency Indians attended. These assured the authorities that they were not hostile and would take no part in any uprising. The regulars under Lieut. Humphrey are now encamped at the agency and are intrenched. The trenches were all dug, not because of the expectation of any not because of the expectation of any trouble, but simply to exercise the men. There has been some talk that the long immunity from punishment of the realcitrant Bear Islanders might encourage a general uprising, and the teachers at the agency were glad enough to have the soldiers moved over there. Even old timers who have known these indians for twenty-five years or more and who have laughed at the idee of a fight heretofore admit that they never knew the Indians to behave so definally, and that there will most likely be a brush.

Official information has just been received here that additional troops, under the personal command of Gen. Becon. will leave Fort Snelling for Leech Lake to-morrow morning.

Washington, Oct. 3—Telegrams received today by Judge Ryan, acting Secretary of the Interior, say that there is no material change in the situation at the White Earth Indian reservation in Minnesota. A council was to be held to-day by the Indians, at which the Indian Agent and Inspector were to be present, and it is hoped that a peaceable settlement of the troubles now pending will be effected. The fact that the Indian have consented to meet in council is considered avorable. Still the situation is looked upon as being grave. trouble, but simply to exercise the men.

RILLED HER FOUR CHILDREN.

Young Mother Goes Insane While Rez Husband Is Away at Church.

MONTREAT, Oct. 8.-News reached Montreal to-day of a terrible tragedy which happened resterday at St. Severin in Beauce county, Quebec. Six years ago Joseph Cloutler, a farmen married Miss Mary Vachon, 18 years old, the daughter of a widow of a neighboring village. They lived happily, and four children added to the joys of their home. The parish church is two miles away, and Mr. Cloutier sang in the choir. Mrs. Cloutier is a handsome woman, and has borne the highest reputation.

Mr. Cloutier went to church yesterdey as usual, and during the services happened to look out of the window toward his home, where his wife and little ones were, when he saw flames. He immediately gave the alarm, and the congregation was dismissed in short order. The distance was quickly covered by strong men, and it was found to be the home of Mr. Cloutier himself that was burning. The house could not be saved, but they saw in the burned ruins the bodies of the four children, the eldest of whom was 0 years and the youngest only four weeks.

Their death was the work of violent hands. The bodies were mutilated and their throats were cut.

The perpetrator of the deed was the unfortunate mother. Mrs. Cloutier suddenly appeared from an outbuilding, and, going up to her husband, told him that she had killed the children and set fire to the house. The unfortunate woman was evidently insane, and it is feared that the husband will also lose his reason. look out of the window toward his home, where an Attempt to Unite the Builders of War ships and Makers of Guus and Armer. CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 3.-It is reported that an attempt to unite the warship building interests and the armor plate and gun making interests of the world is being conducted in Cleveland. The Spanish-American war showed the superiority of the materials used by the army and navy which were made in this country, and attracted the attention of foreign capitalista.

One Cleveland man said to be in the deal is Col. Myron T. Herrick, President of the Society for Savings. Another is Robert Wallace, Presi-

Another is Robert Wallace, President of the Cleveland Shipbuilding Company, Dr. Gatling, the inventor, and the Otis Steel Company people are also said to be interested in the promotion of the enterprise. Armstrong, the inventor of the gun which bears his name, has also been in Cleveland. Andrew Carnegie is said to be one of the chief men in the negotiations.

Robert Wallace is now in the West with several of the foreigners who visited Cleveland. Before he returns he will stop in San Francisco, and the proprietors of the Union Iron Works, which built the famous battleship Oregon, will be approached. Every shipbuilding, gun-making and armor plate making firm in the United States is to be approached in the negotiations. The projectors say they can raise a capital of $200,000,000.

A TROUBAND BUILDINGS WRECKED BY WIND AND FLOOD,

The Georgia Coast Inundated by a Righ Tide Caused by a Gale—The Damage at Brunswick Estimated at Half a Million-Little Loss of Life Reported-Thirty Blecks of the City Under Water for Twelve Hours. BAXLEY, Ga., Oct. S .- Enormous damage was ione in Brunswick. Go., and its vicinity by the storm of Sunday. It is estimated that 1,000 houses and stores have been destroyed and that the loss will foot up half a million of dollars. The damage was caused by the wind and the food. The high wind caused a very high tide, which inundated the low parts of the city and the surrounding country. That the loss in money is not greater is due to the fact that the buildings damaged were in the poorer parts of the city. The houses destroyed outside the city were chiefly those of farm laborers.

Three thousand people sought refuge from the rising waters in the city and on the high ground. Thirty blocks in the heart of the city were under six feet of water for twelve hours. So far as is known now only a few lives were lost, but it is feared that the death list will grow as more becomes known of the effects of the storm. It was the worst flood since the Sea Islands were swept over.

More than seventy miles of country suffered from the storm. The telegraph wires are down in all directions. There is no means of direct ommunication with Brunswick.

Macon, Ga., Oct. 3.-The Southern Railway train which arrived here this afternoon and left Brunswick at 10 o'clock this morning brings the first information of the condition of affairs in that city, where the storm has been raging for two days. There is no estimating the amount of damage that has been done or the number of lives that have been lost. It is known that people were washed out into the ocean by the overflowing waters, but only three bodies have been recovered. These were found just before the train left Brunswick To the city of Brunswick alone it is estimated by passengers of the train that at least one million dollars' damage was done. The entire business part of the city was inundated by the waters that were swept from the ocean by the

The Oglethorpe Hotel, the leading hotel of the State, was flooded so that everything on the first floor was ruined. The storm was so severe as to cause a complete cessation of shipping business as well as all mercantile affairs in the city.

The indications are that Jekyl, Cumberland St. Simons and smaller islands on the coast have also suffered from floods and wind. The water is backed up all over the low country. and in the railroad yards at Brunswick the cars are so deep in water that they cannot be gotten out. The docks are all said to be either destroyed or ruined.

The storm has swept the entire State, and at Beld's Station, eight miles below Macon, a ouse was blown down last night, killing one child, driving a splinter through the stomach of another, cracking the skull of a third and breaking one leg of the mother of the family and crushing the shoulder of the father. All the injured members o the household may die from the effects of their

The greatest distress is reported from the coast country. It is feared that whole families may have been drowned along the coast, as couses are deserted, standing several feet in the water, and the people who occupied them the day before are not accounted for The storm had been predicted for a couple of days and a great many people were prepared for it, but in spite of this fact many were helpless when the flood came up from the ocean.

The eight porsons known to have been drowned at Brunswick were seen to go under when the waves struck them. As they were washed out, it was believed that nothing more would ever be seen of them and it is not certain whether three bodies af-terward washed up into town were those of hese eight victims or not.

did not do the great damage that was expected. So far as can be learned this morning, only one death resulted in this neighborhood from the storm.

The extremely high water did more damage than the wind. The people along the river front and those on the nearby island had plenty of warning of the coming blow and had prepared for it. The high water was a surprise, though, and there was much damage done by it. The wind was in the right direction to bring the water in from the sea, and it came in a sort of tidal wave. The rise of the waters was rapid, and many of the small houses of the negroes on the island within a radius of a few miles of the city were partly filled with water. Savannah had the highest tide in its history. Many wharves were covered.

filled with water. Bayannah had the highest tide in its history. Many wharves were covered.

The damage in Florida, it is believed, was great. The whole peninsula was exposed to the full force of the blow. There is no telegraphic communication with Florida to-day. The telegraph wires are all down.

The rice crop. which was about two-thirds destroyed in the storm of Aug. 20, was just about finished by the latest blow. The rice growers who are in the city report the almost total destruction of the crop. That which was stocked in the fields and even in the barnyards was carried away by the high water and will be lost.

The Savannah quarantine station was almost completely submerged during the entire day. Luckly no one was on the island. All the tugs and similar vessels in the harbor are now out looking for vessels that may have suffered in the storm.

The steamship line, arrived from New York to-day twenty-four hours overdue. The ship is not damaged, and the Captain reports sighting no wrecked vessels. The steamship City of Augusta, from the same port, is expected to arrive to-night.

The nearby resorts suffered greatly from the storm. There were many houses blown down and some small boats beached.

Charleyrow, S. C., Oct. 3.—The barkentine wandering Jew, from Philadelphia for Galveston, with a cargo of coal, was wrecked off the creat here yesterday during the storm. The crew, under command of Capt. Little, took to the rigging, and were swinging there this morning when resound by the tug John Harlan, from Charleston. The 2014 steamer Alsonguin arrived in this morning, after an exceedingly rough voyage from New York.

Reports from the lowiands indicate that the loss to the rice crop will be in the neighborhood of $80,000. The greatest damage from the storm hereabouts came to the rice planters.

HURRICANE LOSES ITS FORCE. It Has Moved Into West Central Georgis

and May Not Come North. WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.-The following special bulletin has been issued by the Weather Bu-

"Oct. 3, 1898.—The storm which Sunday

broke with such fury over the Florida, Georgia and South Carolina coast was detected at its inception Thursday morning by means of the recently established West Indian weather scrvice. Its approach was fully shown by the new vice. Its approach was fully shown by the new cordon of stations, and during daylight on Saturday warnings of the coming storm were completely distributed throughout the region covered by the storm on Sunday. The storm has now moved to west central deorgia, decreasing in energy and losing its character as a hurricane. It is probable that, if it moves northward at all, it will be of such mild character as night result from heavy downpourings of rain. However, special observations will be taken in the middle Atlantic States for the purpose of giving timely warning in case the storm should again give evidence of increasing to such proportions as would be dangerous to shipping.

HE DEFT CER PADACE AT PEKIN ON DAST SHURSDAY.

Becelal Cable Despatch to Tun Sun. Lennon, Oct. 3.—A despatch to the Daily Med from Pekin says that the Emperor on Thursday last tried to bolt from the palace, but the Downger Empress's men captured him before he could escape from the gardens.

A despatch from Shanghal to a news agency says it is expected that the powers will jointly cocupy Pekin, owing to the fears for the safety of the foreign communities. The Ministers of the various powers have held an emergency meeting, and have sent a note to the Tsung-Li-Yamen (Foreign Board) respecting the threats that have been made to murder the diplomatists. The Ministers have also forbidden forsigners to go to Pekin. The German warships which were at Rine Chou started hurriedly for Taku yesterday. Marquis Ito, the Japanese envoy, who was re-ported to have visited Pekin for the purpose of negotiating an offensive and defensive alliance between Japan and China, has left Tientsin. the port of Pekin, and is travelling to Shanghai. The Tsung-Li-Yamen has made a demand on Sir Claude Macdonald, the British Minister, for the surrender of Kang-Yu-Wei, the Canonese reformer, who is charged with having conspired against the life of the Dowager Empress, and who is under British protection. The Chinese Legation in London discredits he stories of the Emperor of China's violent death. The embassy still efficially recognize the Emperor as the monarch of China.

OUR ACTION COMMENDED.

London Papers Say Our Warships at Tien-

Special Cable Despatch to THE BUN. LONDON, Oct. 4.-The despatch of the Amerian warships Baltimore and Petrel from Manila to Tientsin is prominently recorded in the newspapers here this morning, and is commented upon with warm approval.

The Times says that the Government at Washington has acted with a degree of decision and promptitude which is as creditable as it is characteristic. The Morning Post declares that the presence of American warships at Tientsin may have an important effect on events in which most of the great powers are interested.

The Daily Mail says: "When Admiral Dewey's guns opened on Manila the scales of the Monroe doctrine may be said to have fallen from the eyes of the American people. With the annexation of the Philippines the United States acquires direct political interests in the Far East. It is a fortunate fact that these interests accord wholly with those of Great Britain and Japan. We may not unre ... sonably expect the moral and material support of our kinsmen." The Standard, which sees nothing but the Russian bear whenever China is mentioned, hints in a pleasant way on the prospect of the becoming a Russian satrapy, and supporting our stand for equality of rights and opportunities."

WARSHIPS FOR CHINA. Admiral Dewey Instructed to Send the

Buitimore and the Petrel. WASHINGTON, Oct. 3 .- For the first time since the war with Spain began the interests of the United States have demanded that American warships be despatched to foreign waters other than those of the enemy. The Navy Department to-day sent orders by cable to Admiral Dewey, directing him to detach the cruiser Baltimore, Capt. Dyer, and the gunboat Petrel. Commander Wood, from his fleet, and have them proceed at once to Taku, and, if possible, to Tientsin, China, the nearest points to Pekin that can be reached by American warships on the Asiatic station. This action was taken by Secretary Long at the request of Secretary Hay, who received the following despatch last night from Mr. Conger, the United States Minister at Pekin: To Lecretary of State, Washington: No serious danger yet. Considerable anxiety for future. Foreign fleets assembling at Tientain. Bome

The Government is not concerned for Minister Conger and those of his legation in Pekin, but, if there is an outbreak in the capital, Capt. Dyer and Commander Wood will send marines to guard the legation and its residents. This will be done only at the request of Minister Conger, at whose disposal both warships have been placed. It was intended at first to send the Baltimore only, but, on account of her draught and the probability that she would not be able to get nearer Pekin than the forts of the Taku, at the mouth of the Pei Ho. 160 miles below the capital, it was decided to end along the little Petrel, the baby of the fleet under Admiral Dewey. She will probably be able to go all the way to Tientsin. eighty miles below Pekin. Secretary of State Hay said this morning that the Congor despatch contained all the in-formation that the State Department has in that the Conger despatch contained all the information that the State Department has in regard to the situation in China. He assumed that Minister Conger had represented the situation precisely as it was at the time the despatch was sent, which was yesterday, and that the conditions were not at that time such as to cause alarm on account of American interests. The outlook was so far from satisfactory, however, that it had been thought best to send a warship to Tientsin, in order to be prepared for any emergency. Even in times of normal quiestude it is customary to have one or more American warships in Chinese waters, but the situation in the Philippines caused a withdrawal of those vessels last spring.

Wu Ting-fang, the Chinese Minister, said today that he had received a private telegram from China confirming the banishment of Chang Yin Houan to Iliy, a district of Chinese Turkistan. Chang was an opponent of Id Hung Chang in the Foreign Office, and was Minister Wu's predecessor as Minister to this country. He was also a special envoy of China to Queen Victoria's jubilee. Chang was charged with complicity with Kang in the alleged conspiracy against the Empress Dowager, but after a trial was adjudged innocent of the churge. An edict was issued, though, proclaiming him dangerous and ordering him to be banished. Minister Wu said he had no doubt that Rang was in serious trouble or he would not have field to Hong Kong. The reports of the Emperor's death he still believes to be untrue, and called attention to the last edict which the Empress has issued in the name of the Emperor's death he still believes to be untrue, and called attention to the last edict which the Empress has issued in the name of the Emperor's death he still believes to be untrue, and called attention to the last edict which the Empress has issued in the name of the Emperor's death he still believes to be untrue, and called attention to the last edict which the Empress has issued in the name of the Emperor's death he still believes to be untrue, a
